No. 107 1/2 N. E. St.

To The Hon John A Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Va

Yours brother Elkanah Flanary who sues for the benefit of Eliza Wynn humbly complaining represents, That he bargained and sold unto Elkanah D Barker a tract of land situated in the Grob Orchard in said County for the sum of eight hundred dollars. For part of this purchase money to wit $202⁴² the said Barker executed a writing subscribed with his proper name bearing date on the 26th January 1878 whereby the said Barker promised to pay your order the said sum of $202⁴² payable one day after date, and by this writing it is further provided that in the event that that the said debt should be collected by suit then the said Barker further agreed to pay the lawyers fee and Commission for such collection to be included in the Judgment, and as to the payment whereof the said Barker claimed his Homestead Exemption This writing is herewith filed marked A. And is prayed to be considered herewith Yam Arator further states that the said sum of money is due him no part thereof having ever been paid him and although he has often requested the said Barker to pay the same yet he has hitherto failed and refused to pay the same, and hence he has been forced to come into this honorable Court to enforce collection thereof, and being thus compelled he had to employ Hogan & Richmond attorneys at law to bring this suit for the collection of this debt, and for their services he has contracted to pay them 10 per cent on the debt sued on and the legal fee which may be recovered, and as may be seen by said writing these sums the said Barker has bound himself to pay,

The object of this suit is to recover from the said Barker the said sum of money and the fees which Yam Arator has contracted to pay, no deed has as yet been made by Yam Arator to his vendee but he files one for him with this deed, in which it will be seen that a lien is retained for the unpaid purchase money - His prayer therefore is that the said Elknoch & Barker be granted a decree to this effect and answer the same on oath that on a hearing the land in the bill mentioned and described in the deed herewith filed marked B, be sold or a sufficiency thereof to pay said debt due from Barker and accruing costs, and grant other and general relief they may deem proper
